Ladies Night

It's been a long time since we've had a ladies fellowship night. Well, that's all about to change as there is a ladies night scheduled for this Friday, June 4th at 6:30 PM. This fellowship night is hosted by our wonderful Ladies Committee leaders, Clair Arche and Heather Lott. Snacks and babysitting will be provided. There will also be a chance to sign up for ladies' committees since we were unable to meet in January. Mark your calendars now and contact Heather or Clair if you have any questions or concerns.

VBS

Next Saturday, June 5th from 10-12 AM all children ages 3 to 5th grade are invited to join the Wilderness Adventure at the building. This self-paced journey will be assisted by our youth group as children choose a tribe, endure plagues, cross the Red Sea, and discuss how the Israelites learned to trust God in the wilderness. Join this hands-on learning opportunity and contact Jackie Lee if you have any questions.

A New Sister-In-Christ

Natalie Boyd made the best decision of her life and was baptized last week. We are so proud of her decision. The next time you see her, make sure to give her a hug and an encouraging word. It was also great that Steven was able to witness her baptism even while he is deployed.

Sermon Title: Let's Be Judgy

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 5: 9-13

I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the people of this world who are immoral, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world. But now I am writing to you that you must not associate with anyone who claims to be a brother or sister but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or slanderer, a drunkard or swindler. Do not even eat with such people. What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are you not to judge those inside? God will judge those outside. "Expel the wicked person from among you."

The Chosen

There is a great tv series about the Life of Jesus called The Chosen. I was hesitant to watch it because many of these Christian run films are slightly cheesy and low budget, albeit still powerful and helpful. Well, I have absolutely loved watching this one, and it's not a film, it is a whole series!

Throughout the Church's history we have wrestled with the humanity verses divinity of Jesus. Over time the Church settled on identifying Jesus as fully human and fully divine (not half and half, or a regular man with God's Spirit). Lately I have struggled with how God could have been so human that his own siblings did not believe in him (John 7: 5). What must he have looked and acted like as a child? It is hard to not envision him as some perfect, almost robotic child, who knew all the answers, never tripped, or fell, and needed no parenting. But this must not have always been the case! Similarly, a lot of the films about Jesus make him appear as a divine Holy man (which he was) but very robotic, not very personal. This is what I love about The Chosen! It highlights the human side of Jesus, he is fun, relational, compassionate, while still being tough. Some of his speech is directly from the Bible but feels very real and natural.

The first few episodes set an interesting backstory that is not based on scripture. Don't let that scare you off! As the show progresses it shows more of the gospel stories, some essentially word for word. Many of the miracle events are beautifully done and will bring you to tears. It sometimes takes slight liberties with characters and backstories, but this is good because it will make you go back and check your Bible asking, "is that in there?" This has been a joy to watch as a family, it has created some great conversation with my kids (sometimes even pausing the show to talk about it) and has generated extra interest in scripture. You can stream it for free at watch.angelstudios.com/thechosen.

Abilene Brick Painting

You read that headline right. That is an actual thing. Women and young ladies of Westgate, mark your calendars for Saturday, July 31st from 6-8 pm. There will be an opportunity to enjoy a night of fellowship and art. Here is an example of a painted Abilene brick. There are more examples at the "paintedwgrace" Instagram page. Check it out and more event details are to come.

Birthday and Anniversary Calendar

A very long time ago a monthly calendar was offered as a supplement to the bulletin. There has been a request to bring that back and that request has been granted. Knowing that not everyone will use this calendar, there have been a small amount printed and placed on the cabinet in the short hall under the directory lists. The calendar contains birthdays, anniversaries, and upcoming fellowship events.

Children's Ministry News

Children's lesson today is found in Acts 9:1-31 and 2 Corinthians 5:17. Saul is a devout Jewish man committed to imprisoning and even killing Christians. Then he meets Jesus, and everything changes. He realizes he was trapped in anger and sin, even when he thought he was doing the right thing. After meeting Jesus, he follows him and shares his love with everyone he can.

Summary Verse, "And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue His work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns" (Philippians 1:6).

Thank you for praying for our Westgate educators this school year. We will continue next fall with an updated list. May all our teachers have a safe and restful summer.

Thank you to several who have agreed to teach this summer quarter. If you cannot commit for an entire quarter, please consider choosing a Sunday or two to volunteer. Lessons are emailed a week before they are taught, materials are prepared and ready for you to walk in and teach. Check your calendar and prayerfully consider making a difference in the hearts of some of these cuties.
