

Prayer Concerns

~Geraldine Hill's son's mother-in-law Sandra Partain passed away recently. Please remember the family in your prayers as they mourn the loss of this beloved woman and adjust to a new life without her.

~Continued prayers for the health of Ashley Simon's dad. He has had a persistent cough for about 8 months that has slowly progressed, and now the doctors are tentatively calling it Idiopathic Pulmonary Fibrosis (IPF), a progressive disease that fills the air space in the lungs with scar tissue making it difficult and then impossible to breathe. There is no cure and very few effective medical treatment options. Doctors have already mentioned a lung transplant.

~Continue to keep Frances Welch in your prayers. She is in hospice care.

~Remember to pray for Janice Hill, Steve Smith, Mickey Walker, Chester Lynd, Jerry Herttenberger, and all the other members with health concerns.

Westgate Church of Christ

Sermon Title: Foot Washing

Scripture: John 13: 1-17

It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

"No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

"Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean. When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

Thanksgiving Meals/Baskets

There is a sign-up sheet to help with Thanksgiving meals. Volunteers will take food home to prepare for Thanksgiving morning. We will then meet at the church and put the hot, prepared meals together and deliver them. If you know someone who would enjoy a prepared meal, or could benefit from a basket of goods to prepare themselves, reach out to Manny, Brady, or any of the deacons or elders.
