Sermon Title: Two Are Better Than One

Scripture: Ecclesiastes 4: 7-12

Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

There was a man all alone;

he had neither son nor brother.

There was no end to his toil,

yet his eyes were not content with his wealth.

"For whom am I toiling," he asked,

"and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?"

This too is meaningless—

a miserable business!

Two are better than one,

because they have a good return for their labor:

If either of them falls down,

one can help the other up.

But pity anyone who falls

and has no one to help them up.

Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.

But how can one keep warm alone?

Though one may be overpowered,

two can defend themselves.

A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Facebook Group

The Westgate Family Facebook group is a private group for Westgate members. We use it as a safe place for members to share encouragements, prayer requests, announcements, and any communications that we may not want the entire Facebook world to see. If you are not already a member, please scan this QR code and join.

Congratulations

Melanie Tate (daughter of Jill & Anthony Tate) is getting married on April 15th in California. We will be sending a gift card to Melanie and her fiancé Connor Schenck.

If you would like to contribute please give money to Lettie Morrow.

Blessing Box Volunteer Needed

We have one day that needs a volunteer to fill the Blessing Box with food items, as the current volunteer needs to take a break.

Monday is the day available, and we are looking for a minimum 3 month commitment.

Weekly cost is approximately $25.00 to purchase enough items for a one day stocking.

The box is currently filled 7 days per week, and is totally emptied every single day. This is an easy opportunity to provide a needed and tangible service to our community.

If you are interested in volunteering, or need to ask some questions before doing so, please call Steve Templeton at 325-721-9195 or email him at scrapper268@gmail.com.

Marriage Retreat—by Brady Horner

It was so good to have another Westgate Marriage Retreat after a two-year hiatus. I loved spending time with my wife, finding new ways to enrich my marriage, and hanging out with friends away from the stresses of life. I am reminded of what a great community of people we have, and I really enjoyed getting to know several couples better.

Our guest leaders, the Davises, challenged us gave us plenty to think about. Here are a few of my biggest takeaways. We need to look at the future and big picture of our marriages; sometimes our marriages simply revolve around kids. I need to make space for my wife to be my wife, not just the mother of my kids. Our marriages need time for just us, and the marriage retreat was a great way to do that. I also want to better root for friends' marriages; I want my marriage to bless other people's marriages. The Davises challenged us to sit down with another couple to pray for each other's marriages; this was intimate, powerful, and formative. Lastly, I feel more connected to my wife when we are having fun and doing new things together. Communicating well is so important, but so is having fun.

I know there was a lot more great content and thoughts than what I shared. So, if you went on the marriage retreat, make sure you share some of your takeaways with your spouse and with others.

Children's Ministry News

In Joshua 10:1-15, Joshua leads an army of Israelites into battle against five unified armies. The Israelites are fighting to defend another population, the Gibeonites. In turn, God defends the Israelites, sending their enemies into a panic and causing the sun to stand still so they have time to defeat their enemies. God is our defender, too.

Summary Verse: "The Lord is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love."
