~From Sharon Arnold: "Dawn Deitmen and I spent three nights with the Conways upon arriving in Kenya on Tuesday morning. We left Limuru (outside Nairobi) this morning and are headed to Sam's Place. It's about a 6-hour drive. I will remain there for 15 days and return on the 25th. We visited three of our post-secondary students. One is attending teacher college; two others are attending a technical university. The two young men at the technical university are the first two deaf students ever accepted at this university. We provide the interpreters for them."

Welcome Members and Guests

Picture Day Today

We are updating the picture board! Steve Templeton will be taking pictures today and next Sunday, Jan. 18, after services. He will be in the first classroom in the west hallway as you exit the auditorium. This is for new members as well as anyone who wants an updated picture.

Young Adult Bible Class

This Sunday morning class is for young adults who are navigating early adulthood – work, relationships, marriage, singleness, and faith. Designed for adults in their 20s, this class aims to provide a place to figure out life together in community. Whether you're single or married, with or without kids, you're welcome to join us as we explore faith and the unique questions of this season of life. This class will meet in the first classroom on your right as you enter the southeast door, starting today.

Gift Card Collection

Rebecca Boerio Cummings, daughter of Marshall and Kathryn Boerio, was married in December. We are collecting money for a gift card for Rebecca and her husband Joel. You can contribute by giving money to Briana Horner (Venmo is fine) or Jill Tate, or by placing a check in the office with "gift card" on the memo line. Best wishes to the happy couple!

Sermon Title: Break Me

Scripture: Psalm 51: 1-12

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight; so you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge.

Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.

Yet you desired faithfulness even in the womb; you taught me wisdom in that secret place.

Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice.

Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.

Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

A Changing Abilene – by Brady Horner

I'm hearing a lot of excitement about the growth in Abilene. We have enjoyed having a Chuy's here, and between a Bass Pro Outpost (not quite as exciting as a Bass Pro Shop, but still something to be celebrated) and (rumors of?) a Buc-ee's in Clyde, there is a lot more coming. People are hoping/speculating for places like Trader Joe's, In-N-Out Burger, and a Nashville Hot Chicken place called Angry Chickz.

While the new businesses are exciting, there are some downsides. Have you driven on Southwest lately? Traffic is crazy over there! If all these rumors are true it will likely get worse everywhere. I hate to sound xenophobic, but if as many people move here as some speculate, Abilene may not feel like Abilene anymore. There could be lots more unfamiliar faces and a change in culture. I know a lot of longtime Abilene residents will not like this.

Growth is change; and humans tend to fight change. Change makes us uncomfortable; change is a threat to what we have. How are we going to handle new, different people? The bulk of the New Testament is encouraging God's people (the Jews) to accept the "new people", the Gentiles, into their faith community. While some change is uncomfortable, I hope that we as a church and as a community can accept the growth that is happening. May we be a hospitable place of love and patience and accept the growth that is happening as our hometown begins to look different.

Sunday AM Adult Bible Classes

Fellowship Hall – Brady Horner – Risky Faith

In towns like Abilene, where there are churches on every corner, it gets easy to be caught up in comfortable (or even boring) Christianity. Throughout history God has called his people to do bold, even risky things, for his Kingdom. The Sunday morning class in the Fellowship Hall will look at people who took faith risks in scripture and will explore ways God may be encouraging us to take faith risks today.

Auditorium – CJ Chaney – Restoring a Brand New Thing

I'll start by sharing my testimony and how Michelle and I got here to Westgate. This will lead into how WE (collectively) got here—leaning into Alexander Campbell, Barton W. Stone, and their contemporaries. We'll look at some of their major beliefs and talk through those through scripture. Then we will tie those things back to what and how we believe today.

East Hall Classroom – Andrew Clute – Young Adult Class

See the front of the bulletin for details on this exciting new class.
