

Prayer Concerns

~Eric Gumm’s mother, Ethel Gumm, passed away on Wednesday. Our sincere sympathy to the Gumms, Coles, and Clutes. The memorial service is today at 3 p.m. at Westgate, with visitation to follow.

~Colleen Blasingame is at Windcrest Rehab, continuing to improve. She hopes to go home sometime in the not too distant future. Please keep praying for her recovery.

~Good news! The little boy that Kathryn Boerio asked us to pray for was released from Cooks and able to go home Tuesday. He is much better. Thanks so much for your prayers.

~Clair Arche’s dad, Bobby Atchley, is scheduled for double bypass surgery this Wednesday. Please pray for a successful surgery with no complications and a quick recovery.

Young Adult Bible Class

This Sunday morning class is for young adults who are navigating early adulthood – work, relationships, marriage, singleness, and faith. Designed for adults in their 20s, this class aims to provide a place to figure out life together in community. Whether you’re single or married, with or without kids, you’re welcome to join us as we explore faith and the unique questions of this season of life. This class meets in Room 1 in the east hall.

Tax Time

If you would like a letter from the church office stating your 2025 contribution total amount, just email westgatecofc@gmail.com or call 325-692-2300. If you eGive, you can click on “History” and it will show your donations from 2025. If you give through Churchteams, click “giving” and then “manage” to download a giving statement.

Love Grub This Wednesday Night

Make plans to come Wednesday at 5:45 p.m. for a favorite Love Grub meal: chicken strips and tater tots with brownies and ice cream for dessert! Brownie ingredients are ready to be picked up this morning in the kitchen after services. Please donate some money that evening to cover the cost of your meal if you’re able.

Picture Day Today

Need a new photo for our picture board and online directory? You have one more opportunity this morning. Steve Templeton will be taking photos in the Bible Trails classroom in the west hall. Be sure to head that way as soon as morning services are over.

Next Sunday

With so many out of town next weekend for the Marriage Retreat, things will look a little different here at Westgate. Brady’s fellowship hall class will go into CJ Chaney’s auditorium class, and former minister Rodney Ashlock will be preaching that morning. The children’s classes, youth group class, and young adult class will proceed normally.

Marriage Retreat Begins Friday

Thanks to all those who signed up for the Marriage Retreat. Check-in is this Friday (1/23) from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at Fairfield Inn and Suites in Weatherford. Participants will get an email with the itinerary and more information; contact Chris Meeks if you don’t receive that.

Sermon Title: Send Me

Scripture: Isaiah 6: 1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory.” At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty.” Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

Pass it On – by Ed Mathews

The Bible frequently mentions the suffering of the saints. One could assume that believers shed more tears than unbelievers. Perhaps, there is a sense in which that is true. For the family of God is susceptible to certain sadness the disobedient do not bear.

Nevertheless, there is another side to suffering. Affliction can be a blessing! God comforts us so we can comfort others, II Corinthians 1:3,4. The school of hard knocks equips us to help those having a difficult time.

1. Experience of Comforters. Past struggles qualify a person to offer present counsel. Those who have been through it know how to triumph over it. Experience gives insight. Veterans of sorrow know the drill. They have been there. They have done that. Because their hearts have been broken, they can nurture the brokenhearted. The inexperienced might express beautiful words. The experienced can communicate unutterable feelings.

2. Example of Comforters. Those who have survived the rigors of life possess the power of a noble lesson. Their influence is like the quiet warmth of the sun. They encourage the weak to be strong. They move the downtrodden to look up. Their actions persuade. Their victory leads others to fight the good fight. Without saying a word, they speak volumes to those who are willing to listen.

Therefore, we “rejoice in our sufferings,” Colossians 1:24. God comforts us so that we can comfort others. Blessed are those who receive without forgetting and give without remembering. What a joy to “pass it on.”

Children’s Ministry News

- Our focus for January is on Paul and Lydia from Philippians 4:6-9 and Acts 16:11-40.

Tableau photos of Lydia’s Baptism

- The winter memory verse is Isaiah 9:6 “For unto us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.”

Youth Ministry News

You can pick up a WYM Spring Calendar at the bulletin board by Clay’s office to see a list of all our activities for the upcoming months!

The Mystery Trip is this weekend! We left on Saturday morning and will return on Monday afternoon (MLK Day). Please pray for our students to stay safe and have an amazing time!

Make sure to register for Camp Beloved and Beyond! Any students who are 13 or older are invited to come with us as we serve campers with special needs this summer. Our group spots are reserved until February 6, so please make sure you register before then! See your email for registration information, and ask Clay if you have any questions about the registration process.

Please mark your calendar for our next Youth Group Devo, which will be on Sunday, February 1.

We will have both our Senior Valentine Lunch and Super Bowl Party on Sunday, February 8!

Please pray for all our students this Spring semester of school!
